- JDAI
- DMC Regulations
- Focused on State of Florida
- Impressed with Hillsborough County Collaborative
- Find a way to fold in as a statewide blueprint
- Reduce the number of people
- Increased detention #s currently 50-60 in detention historically it's been over 100 youth

- Lynn Gray invited members to tour the facility again under Grice leadership
- Surprised to find youth watching the movie John Wick; says soft handoff is not happening
- Majority of youth prefer alternative schools over their home schools
- Top 3 obstacles: Transportation
- Found 2-3 officers in a 14x14 room, 1 teacher, 10-15 teens.
- Suggested Superintendent to be more informed with Criminal Justice
- Would like for Julie Holt and Andrew Warren to be more involved with schools; says bill moving through the Legislature; Juvenile Director filed – kids should be in detention centers
- Loss to Hillsborough County and youth if it passes; adding fifty more youth in detention is crippling; obstacles exist
- Proposed training in cognitive behavior for staff and youth; detention is not inviting; St. Lawrence is appalled at the conditions; efforts are underway to improve the facility esthetically; improvements made to the building's façade
- Recommended the School Superintendent engage with the Public Safety Coordinating Council (PSCC) should be a part of that council.
- Should engage with Safe & Sound Hillsborough
